Marshall Community Credit Union Awards $8,000 in Scholarships!

Marshall Community Credit Union recently awarded eight scholarships of $1,000 each to college-bound credit union members. MCCU's scholarships are awarded to students in recognition of their academic performance, extracurricular activities, community service and leadership. Recipients of the scholarship for the 2018-2019 school year are:

Joshua Adair – Homeschooled
Margaret Avery – Homer High School
Alayna Dornton – Marshall High School
Ethan Ely – Olivet High School
Tarah Lang – Marshall High School
Carter Peek – Marshall High School
Lauren Terry – Marshall High School
Nathaniel Zona – Olivet High School

“On behalf of the scholarship committee, congratulations to the recipients of this year’s scholarship! It is so important to acknowledge students not only for their academic merits, but also for their community involvement and leadership skills. I am proud to be a part of an organization that continuously supports the educational goals of students within our communities,” said Andrea Tucker, MCCU Financial Education Coordinator and Scholarship Committee member.

Recipients and their families were recognized during the credit union’s Annual Meeting that was held at the Marshall office on Friday, April 12th. In addition to recognizing the students, MCCU’s CEO, Heather Luciani, prepared a short speech where she explained how the scholarship program came to be and why offering the program was important to the credit union. “Teaching people about money and helping them better manage it is at the heart of what we do as a credit union. Through our CU In School program, we offer student run credit union branches at ten area schools, along with financial classroom presentations, credit union tours, Dollar’s for A’s program, teacher assistance and most recently, scholarships for graduating seniors.” Luciani went on to say, “Awarding scholarships to deserving young men and women, who are the future leaders of our communities, is an extension of our core mission and one of the wisest investments we can make.”

2019 marked the sixth year that MCCU offered the scholarships, and plans are already underway to again offer scholarship for graduating 2020 seniors.
