

Marshall Community
Credit Union

MCCU Staff Supports Marshall United Way Campaign

Marshall Community Credit Union staff members came together during the months of October and November, to raise funds for a worthy cause, the Marshall United Way. Funds raised during the campaign help support the nearly 20 Marshall United Way partner agencies and programs that help families gain financial stability, children achieve academic success, provide wellness services and gain overall access to essential services.

“If I’ve learned nothing else from this year, I’ve learned that the key to social change is how we work together,” said Andrea Tucker, MCCU Financial Education Coordinator and Marshall United Way Co-Chair. “If we work in a “united way,” we can change what’s possible for the children, families and individuals in our community,” she continued.

MCCU staff members made donations totaling $3,909. And with a $250 corporate match, a total donation of $4,159 was received by Marshall United Way Executive Director, Cindy Lake.

“The money raised, by businesses such as Marshall Community Credit Union, stays in our community and goes to the agencies that need it most,” said Marshall United Way Executive Director, Cindy Lake. “We have an ambitious goal of raising $140,000 this year, and MCCU and their employees, have helped up get closer to reaching that goal,” she continued.

Marshall Community Credit Union is a federally insured full-service financial institution with offices located in Marshall, Battle Creek and Coldwater. For more information on products, services or membership, please contact 269.781.9885 or visit marshallcommunitycu.com.

(L-R) Marshall Community Credit Union Financial Education Coordinator and Marshall United Way Co-Chair, Andrea Tucker, presents Marshall United Way Executive Director, Cindy Lake, with a check for over $4,000.