

Marshall Community
Credit Union

MCCU Donates Books to MHS English Department

Marshall Community Credit Union recently donated nearly $1,000 to Marshall High School through their Mini-Grant program. MHS English Department Chair, Mike Fitzpatrick, submitted the application stating that the funds would be used to purchase nearly 100 copies of “To Kill a Mockingbird,” by Harper Lee.

“The copies of this particular book will be used by over 200 of our freshman students each year,” said Fitzpatrick. “We are in need of replacement supplies like this after many copies of the book were misplaced or damaged during our closure due to COVID-19 last spring,” he continued.

MCCU’s mini-grant program is available for teachers, administrators and school staff at any of their partner schools (those that participate in the credit union’s CU In School program, an in-school, student run credit union branch). Participating schools include Mar Lee, Marshall High School, Marshall Middle School, Walters, Hughes and Gordon Elementary, as well as Wattles Park Elementary and Harper Creek Middle School. Mini-Grants can be used for items or services that participating schools do not normally purchase through funding resources. For more information regarding MCCU’s Mini-Grant program, or to receive an application, contact Andrea Tucker at andrea.tucker@marshallcommunitycu.com or 269.781.9885 x3144.

Marshall Community Credit Union is a federally insured full-service financial institution with offices located in Marshall, Battle Creek, and Coldwater. For more information on products, services or membership, please contact 269.781.9885 or visit marshallcommunitycu.com.

MCCU donated funding to purchase nearly 100 copies of “To Kill a Mockingbird” for Marshall High School students. Stickers reading “This book donated by MCCU,” were added to each copy.