

Marshall Community
Credit Union

MCCU Donates to Charitable Union

Marshall Community Credit Union recently donated nearly $300 in new clothing for Charitable Union's Back-to-School Collections.

The annual clothing distribution event is held at various locations throughout Battle Creek, Marshall, Albion and Homer, and is available for local students of low-to-moderate income. Each student who attends will receive one free outfit consisting of a skirt or pant, a shirt, underwear and socks.

"We've enjoyed collecting items for this event and even volunteering at a few in past years," said MCCU's Financial Education Coordinator, Andrea Tucker. "However, with on-going COVID precautions, we decided to just purchase our own donations this year. By doing so, we were able to donate items that were truly needed," Tucker continued.

If you'd like to make your own clothing donation, or have specific questions about the event, contact Tyler Haviland, Charitable Union Fund Development Coordinator, at tyler@charitableunion.org.

Marshall Community Credit Union is a federally insured full-service financial institution with offices located in Marshall, Battle Creek, and Coldwater. For more information on products, services or membership, please contact 269.781.9885 or visit marshallcommunitycu.com.

(L-R) MCCU's Maddy Cipcic and Andrea Tucker, present part of the credit union's clothing donation to Charitable Union Fund Development Coordinator, Tyler Haviland.