MCCU Volunteers at Kids N' Stuff Annual Auction

Marshall Community Credit Union staff members recently volunteered at Kids N' Stuff Children's Museum annual auction, Bids N' Stuff. MCCU staffers worked the check in/out table, which logged attendees into the event, providing them their bidder number and of course, checking them out at the end of the night. In addition, other volunteers helped to log bids after both the silent and live auction at the event.

The event took place at Stoffer Plaza, just behind Kids N' Stuff, in downtown Albion, on Saturday, September 11th. "We really appreciate the volunteers that stepped in to assist us at our auction this year," said Kids N' Stuff Board Member and Auction Chair, Caroline Hurteau. "Their help made our check in and check out processes so much smoother," she continued.

In all over $30,000 was raised from the event, most of which will be going towards the installation of a new water table and exhibit at the museum.
