Marshall Community Credit Union Awards $8,000 in Scholarships!

Marshall Community Credit Union recently awarded eight scholarships of $1,000 each to college-bound credit union members. MCCU's scholarships are awarded to students in recognition of their academic performance, extracurricular activities, community service and leadership. Recipients of the scholarship for the 2021-2 school year are:

Olivia Amtig – Homeschool & Dual Enrolled at KCC
Kayla Antilla – Marshall High School
Mia Cascioli – Marshall High School
Makenna Groeneveld - Homeschool
Jerome Korten – Marshall High School
Gillian Lemon – Marshall High School
Anabelle Machalka – Marshall High School
Carson Tucker – Marshall High School

“On behalf of the scholarship committee, congratulations to the recipients of this year’s scholarship! It is so important to acknowledge students not only for their academic merits, but also for their community involvement and leadership skills. MCCU is proud to support the educational goals of students within our communities,” said Becky Hewitt, MCCU Marketing Representative and Scholarship Committee member.

Recipients were recognized during the credit union’s Annual Meeting that was held virtually, on Friday, April 22nd.

2022 marked the ninth year that MCCU offered the scholarships with 29 applications received. Plans are already underway to again offer scholarship for graduating 2023 seniors.
