Malena Johnson – Marshall High School
Madeline Kue – Marshall High School

“We received 23 scholarship applications from area school districts. Deciding on the submissions is quite possibly one of the hardest decisions for the marketing team. We celebrate the success of all the applicants, and it's rewarding to support these members for their combined achievements in academics, philanthropy, and community involvement,” said Laura Van Dyke, Financial Education Specialist, MCCU. “On behalf of the MCCU Board of Directors, we celebrate these wonderful students on their hard work and dedication.”

Since the scholarship program's inception in 2014, MCCU has awarded $72,000 in scholarships to area seniors pursuing additional education via college, university, or technical school. "Being able to provide financial support to our youth members as they take their next steps in life is important to MCCU, whether those steps include a technical school, a college, or a university," adds Van Dyke.
