

2019 Scholarship Requirements

Application Deadline is March 16, 2019

Statement of Scholarship Provisions

The Marshall Community Credit Union Scholarship will provide $1,000 toward tuition at an accredited college or technical school in the United States. The scholarship will be payable to the college of your choice as a one-time payment for the first semester's tuition, not to include books. Eight scholarships will be awarded in 2019.

Statement of Recipient Requirements

The Marshall Community Credit Union Scholarship requires that the recipient:

- Be a 2019 graduating high school senior
- Be a Marshall Community Credit Union member in good standing
- Attend a college or technical school in the United States
- Provide MCCU proof of college acceptance before receiving funds
- Every qualified candidate will be considered: however, financial need and community involvement will be a factor

Additional Information

Along with the completed application, student must also include the following:

- Two, non-family, references
- Minimum 500 word essay answering at least two of the following questions:
 - If you were given $1,000, what would you do with it and why?
 - What was the last money mistake you made and why?
 - What is one financial lesson you wished you would have learned in school and why?
 - What is one financial lesson you have learned, and why do you feel it is so important?
- High school transcript including overall GPA from 9th-12th grade
- Two letters of recommendation from a school counselor, teacher, coach, school leader or employer
