MCCU's CU In School Program Presents Battle of the Grades

Marshall, Michigan – Marshall Community Credit Union's CU In School program presents Battle of the Grades! A friendly competition between each grade level at Gordon, Hughes, Walters, Mar Lee, Marshall Academy and Wattles Park Elementary schools.

Who can make the most deposits in one month's time? The winning grade level will receive a popsicle party by MCCU CU In School Representative's Andrea Tucker and Janell Quinn. "The goal is to increase the number of deposits each week at each of the participating schools," said Tucker. "And rather than focus on the deposit amount, we're simply encouraging students to work on making regularly weekly deposits – regardless of the amount," she continued.

In addition to the popsicle party, the winning classroom teacher will also receive a $25 Amazon gift card! The contest runs March 1-29, 2019 at the six elementary schools lists above. Qualifying deposits are any deposit made at the school branch of $0.05 or more. Students must have an account at Marshall Community Credit Union to participate.
