MCCU's CU In School Program Celebrates with Classroom Champions

Marshall, Michigan – Marshall Community Credit Union's CU In School program recently held a month long contest they called "Battle of the Grades." The contest ran from March 2nd thru March 30th at six of MCCU's CU In School branches, including; Gordon Elementary, Hughes Elementary, Mar Lee, Marshall Academy, Walters Elementary and Wattles Park Elementary School. The object of the contest, was to see which elementary classroom could make the most deposits at their school's CU In School branch.

In the end, a total of 558 deposits were made, totaling over $3,390! Each winning classroom won an ice cream party, put on by MCCU CU In School Youth Representatives, Andrea Tucker and Janell Quinn. And the teacher of the winning classroom received a $50 Visa gift card!

The winning classrooms from each school are as follows;

- Mr. Rupp's 3rd grade class at Gordon Elementary (total of 16 deposits)
- Ms. Mead's 5th grade class at Hughes Elementary (total of 45 deposits)
- Ms. Rocco's 3rd grade class at Mar Lee (total of 20 deposits)
- Mr. Madelung's 1st grade class at Marshall Academy (total of 8 deposits)
- Mr. Miller's 3rd grade class at Walters Elementary (total of 24 deposits)
- Ms. Bartholomew's 4th grade class at Wattles Park Elementary (total of 25 deposits)
