Marshall Community Credit Union Celebrates Money Smart Week 2018

Are you Money Smart? Fact is, we all could use a little help when it comes to managing our finances. Money doesn't come with instructions, and that's why banks, businesses, schools, libraries and lots of others are joining together to help support financial education during Money Smart Week – April 21st through the 28th. Hundreds of free classes will be offered throughout the country for all ages and walks of life during Money Smart Week. Learn about credit, the home-buying process, estate planning, how to avoid being a victim of identity theft and much more!

Marshall Community Credit Union is hosting a variety of kid's events during Money Smart Week:

- Tuesday, April 24th – Marshall District Library - 10:30am: preschool age kids and younger, are invited to join MDL and MCCU for a reading of Lots and Lots of Coins by Margarette S. Reid. Learn some interesting facts about coins, as well participate in a coin treasure hunt!
- Thursday, April 26th – Tekonsha Township Library – 6:30pm: kids in grades K-4th will hear a story, learn about different coins, and participate in a fun activity!

In addition, MCCU is offering free shred days all week long! Have personal papers you need to get rid of? Stop by either MCCU location April 21-28, 2018 and put them in our locked document shred bins. We'll take care of the shredding for you. While you're there, sign up for a chance to win one of two 12-sheet cross cut paper shredders!

Money Smart Week is a public awareness campaign to promote financial education across all age groups. Launched in 2002 by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, the program is now active in more than 45 states through national partnerships with the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and USDA (United States Department of Agriculture) Cooperative Extension and the American Library Association.

Marshall Community Credit Union is a federally insured full-service financial institution with offices located at 839 West Green Street in Marshall and 1157 East Michigan Avenue in Battle Creek.
